

Support departments across the sciences!

Choose the All Publications Package and support departments campuswide. With more than 57% of articles citing ACS Publications categorized outside of chemistry, you find departments including physics, biochemistry, engineering, materials science, agriculture, and even the social sciences citing ACS articles.

ACCELERATE

The ACS All Publications Package provides patrons with unrestricted access to the entire portfolio of current ACS journals and, new in 2017, Chemical & Engineering News. Get the ACS All Publications Package and support undergraduate education, faculty currency, and, especially, top-tier research.

ACCESS ANYWHERE

Combine with free ACS2Go for worldwide mobile access.

EMPOWER

Fuel your college or university with access to the most cited chemistry journals in the world and the top industry news magazine! With access to articles published from 1996 to the present and more than 40,000 new articles added annually, your patrons will have everything they need to push scientific boundaries.
